Preface

I am a grandson of Jacob Daniel “Charles” Froeschle and Mary Gill and have collected information on their descendants and ancestors for many years. In addition to their descendants, this booklet includes an abridged summary of Jacob’s and Mary’s parents and grandparents abstracted from a large computerized database of the Froeschle and related families.

Submitters of information for a future, updated and expanded booklet, and researchers desiring to exchange information, should note the following guidelines:

1. All male names should include middle, “nickname” and surname, if known.
2. All female names should include first, middle, “nickname” and maiden surname, if know.
3. All male and female names should include birth, marriage, death and burial information, if applicable, and if know.
4. All event dates (e.g., birth, marriage, death and burial) should include day, month and year, if known.
5. All event places (e.g., birth, marriage, death and burial) should include city or township, county, state and name of cemetery, if known.
6. All spouse names should include both parents names, if known.
7. All previously married spouses should include the name of the previous marriage partner and the names of their children, if known.
